LD.2/N/33-68

The Enemy Property Ordinance, No. 7 of 1968 Promulgated by the President in the Nineteenth Year of the Republic of India is hereby reproduced below for general information of the public.

V. R. Vaze, Under Secretary.

Panaji, 17th July, 1968.

THE ENEMY PROPERTY ORDINANCE, 1968

No. 7 of 1968

Promulgated by the President in the Nineteenth Year of the Republic of India.

An Ordinance to provide for the continued vesting of enemy property vested in the Custodian of Enemy Property for India under the Defence of India Rules, 1962 and for matters connected therewith.

Whereas Parliament is not in session and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action;

Now, Therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 123 of the Constitution, the President is pleased to promulgate the following Ordinance: —

1. Short title, extent, application and commencement. — (1) This Ordinance may be called the Enemy Property Ordinance, 1968.

(2) It extends to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir and it applies also to all citizens of India outside India and to branches and agencies outside India of companies or bodies corporate registered or incorporated in India.

(3) It shall come into force on the 10th day of July, 1968.

2. Definitions. — In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires, —

(a) «Custodian» means the Custodian of Enemy Property for India appointed or deemed to have been appointed under section 3 and includes a Deputy Custodian and an Assistant Custodian of Enemy Property appointed or deemed to have been appointed under that section;

(b) «enemy» or «enemy subject» or «enemy firm» means a person or country who or which was an enemy, an enemy subject or an enemy firm, as the case may be, under the Defence of India Act, 1962 and the rules made thereunder, but does not include a citizen of India; 51 of 1962.

(c) «enemy property» means any property for the time being belonging to or held managed on behalf of an enemy, an enemy subject or an enemy firm;

Provided that where an individual enemy subject dies in the territories to which this Ordinance extends, any property which immediately before his death, belonged to or was held by him or was managed on his behalf, may notwithstanding his death, continue to be regarded as enemy property for the purposes of this Ordinance;

(d) «prescribed» means prescribed by rules made under this Ordinance.

3. Appointment of Custodian of Enemy Property for India and Deputy Custodian, etc. — The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint a Custodian of Enemy Property for India and one or more Deputy Custodians and Assistant Custodians of Enemy Property for such local areas as may be specified in the notification:

Provided that the Custodian of Enemy Property for India and any Deputy Custodian or Assistant Custodian of Enemy Property appointed under the Defence of India Rules, 1962, shall be deemed to have been appointed under this section.

4. Appointment of Inspectors of Enemy Property.—The Central Government may, either generally or for any particular area, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint one or more Inspectors of Enemy Property for securing compliance with the provisions of this Ordinance and may, by general or special order, provide for the distribution and allocation of the work to be performed by them for securing such compliance:

Provided that every Inspector of Enemy Firms appointed under the Defence of India Rules, 1962, shall be deemed to be an Inspector of Enemy Property appointed under this section.

5. Property vested in the Custodian of Enemy Property for India under the Defence of India Rules, 1962 to continue to vest in the Custodian.—Notwithstanding the expiration of the Defence of India Act, 1962 and the Defence of India Rules, 1962, all enemy property vested before such expiration in the Custodian of Enemy Property for India appointed under the said rules and continuing to vest in him immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance shall, as from such commencement, vest in the Custodian. 51 of 1962.

6. Transfer of property vested in Custodian by enemy or enemy subject or enemy firm.—Where any property vested in the Custodian under this Ordinance has been transferred, whether before or after the commencement of this Ordinance, by an enemy or an enemy subject or an enemy firm and where it appears to the Central Government that such transfer is injurious to the public interest or was made with a view to evading or defeating the vesting of the property in the Custodian, then, the Central Government may, after giving a reasonable opportunity to the transferee to be heard in the matter, by order, declare such transfer to be void and on the making of such order, the property shall continue to vest or be deemed to vest in the Custodian.

7. Payment to Custodian of money otherwise payable to an enemy, enemy subject or enemy firm.—

(1) Any sum payable by way of dividend, interest, share profits or otherwise to or for the benefit of an enemy or an enemy subject or an enemy firm shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Central Government, be paid by the person by whom such sum would have been payable but for the prohibition under the Defence of India Rules, 1962, to the Custodian or such person as may be authorised by him in this behalf and shall be held by the Custodian or such person subject to the provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) In cases in which money would, but for the prohibition under the Defence of India Rules, 1962, be payable in a foreign currency to or for the benefit of an enemy or an enemy subject or an enemy firm (other than cases in which money is payable under a contract in which provision is made for a specified rate of exchange), the payment shall be made to the Custodian in rupee currency at the middle official rate of exchange fixed by the Reserve Bank of India on the date on which the payment became due to that enemy, enemy subject or enemy firm.

(3) The Custodian shall, subject to the provisions of section 8, deal with any money paid to him under the Defence of India Rules, 1962 or under this Ordinance and any property vested in him under this Ordinance in such manner as the Central Government may direct.

8. Powers of Custodian in respect of enemy property vested in him.—(1) With respect to the property vested in the Custodian under this Ordinance, the Custodian may take or authorise the taking of such measures as he considers necessary or expedient for preserving such property and where such property belongs to an individual enemy subject, may incur such expenditure out of the property as he considers necessary or expedient for the maintenance of that individual or of his family in India.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, the Custodian or such person as may be specially authorised by him in this behalf, may, for the said purpose,—

- (i) carry on the business of the enemy;
- (ii) take action for recovering any money due to the enemy;
- (iii) make any contract and execute any document in the name and on behalf of the enemy;
- (iv) institute, defend or continue any suit or other legal proceeding, refer any dispute to arbitration and compromise any debts, claims or liabilities;
- (v) raise on the security of the property such loans as may be necessary;
- (vi) incur out of the property any expenditure including the payment of any taxes, duties, cesses and rates to Government or to any local authority and of any wages, salaries, pensions, provident fund contributions to, or in respect of, any employee of the enemy and the repayment of any debts due by the enemy to person other than enemies;
- (vii) transfer by way of sale, mortgage or lease or otherwise dispose of any of the properties;
- (viii) invest any moneys held by him on behalf of enemies for the purchase of Treasury Bills or such other Government securities as may be approved by the Central Government for the purpose;
- (ix) make payment to the enemy and his dependents;
- (x) make payments on behalf of the enemy to persons other than those who are enemies, of dues outstanding on the 25th October, 1962; and
- (xi) make such other payments out of the funds of the enemy as may be directed by the Central Government.

Explanation.—In this sub-section and in sections 10 and 17, "enemy" includes an enemy subject and an enemy firm.

9. Exemption from attachment, etc.—All enemy property vested in the Custodian under this Ordinance shall be exempt from attachment, seizure or sale in execution of decree of a civil court or orders of any other authority.

10. Transfer of securities belonging to an enemy. —

(1) Where, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 8, the Custodian proposes to sell any security issued by a company and belonging to an enemy, the company may, with the consent of the Custodian, purchase the securities, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law or in any regulations of the company and any securities so purchased may be re-issued by the company as and when it thinks fit so to do.

(2) Where the Custodian executes and transfers any securities issued by a company, the company shall, on receipt of the transfer and an order in this behalf from the Custodian, register the securities in the name of the transferee, notwithstanding that the regulations of the company do not permit such registration in the absence of the certificate, script or other evidence of title relating to the securities transferred:

Provided that any such registration shall be without prejudice to any lien or charge in favour of the company and to any other lien or charge of which the Custodian gives express notice to the company.

Explanation. — In this section, "securities" includes shares, stocks, bonds, debentures and debenture stock but does not include bills of exchange.

11. Power of Custodian to summon persons and call for documents. — (1) The Custodian may, by notice in writing, require any person whom he believes to be capable of giving information concerning any enemy property to attend before him at such time and place as may be specified in the notice and examine any such person concerning the same, reduce his statement to writing and require him to sign it.

(2) The Custodian may, by notice in writing, require any person whom he believes to have in his possession or control any account book, letter book, invoice receipt or other document of whatever nature relating to any enemy property, to produce the same or cause the same to be produced before the Custodian at such time and place as may be specified in the notice and to submit the same to his examination and to allow copies of any entry therein or any part thereof to be taken by him.

12. Protection for complying with orders of Custodian. — Where any order with respect to any money or property is addressed to any person by the Custodian and accompanied by a certificate of the Custodian that the money or property is money or property vested in him under this Ordinance, the certificate shall be evidence of the facts stated therein and if that person complies with the orders of the Custodian, he shall not be liable to any suit or other legal proceeding by reason only of such compliance.

13. Validity of action taken in pursuance of orders of Custodian. — Where under this Ordinance, —

(a) any money is paid to the Custodian; or

(b) any property is vested in the Custodian or an order is given to any person by the Custodian in relation to any property which appears to the Custodian to be enemy property vested in him under this Ordinance.

neither the payment, vesting nor order of the Custodian nor any proceedings in consequence thereof shall be invalidated or affected by reason only that at a material time, —

(i) some person who was or might have been interested in the money or property, and who was an enemy or an enemy firm, had died or had ceased to be an enemy or an enemy firm; or

(ii) some person who was so interested and who was believed by the Custodian to be an enemy or an enemy firm, was not an enemy or an enemy firm.

14. Proceedings against companies whose assets vest in Custodian. —

Where the enemy property vested in the Custodian under this Ordinance consists of assets of a company, no proceeding, civil or criminal, shall be instituted under the Companies Act, 1956, against the company or any director, manager or other officer thereof except with the consent in writing of the Custodian. 1 of 1956.

15. Returns as to enemy property. — (1) The Custodian may call for from persons who, in his opinion, have any interest in, or control over, any enemy property vested in him under this Ordinance, such returns as may be prescribed.

(2) Every person from whom a return is called for under subsection (1) shall be bound to submit such return within the prescribed period.

16. Registers of returns. — (1) All returns relating to enemy property submitted to the Custodian under this Ordinance shall be recorded in such registers as may be prescribed.

(2) All such registers shall be open to inspection subject to the payment of such fees as may be prescribed and to such reasonable restrictions as the Custodian may impose, to any person who, in the opinion of the Custodian, is interested in any particular enemy property as a creditor or otherwise and any such person may also obtain a copy of the relevant portion from the registers on payment of the prescribed fees.

17. Levy of fees. — (1) There shall be levied by the Custodian fees equal to two per centum of —

(a) the amount of moneys paid to him;

(b) the proceeds of the sale or transfer of any property which has been vested in him under this Ordinance; and

(c) the value of the residual property, if any, at the time of its transfer to the original owner or other person specified by the Central Government under section 18:

Provided that in the case of an enemy whose property is allowed by the Custodian to be managed by some person specially authorised in that behalf, there shall be levied a fee of two per centum of the gross income of the enemy or such less fee as may be specifically fixed by the Central Government after taking into consideration the cost of direct management incurred by that Government, the cost of superior supervision and any risks that may be incurred by that Government in respect of the management:

Provided further that the Central Government may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, reduce or remit the fees leviable under this sub-section in any special case or class of cases.

Explanation. — In this sub-section «gross income of the enemy» means income derived out of the properties of the enemy vested in the Custodian under this Ordinance.

(2) The value of any property for the purpose of assessing the fees shall be the price which, in the opinion of the Central Government or of an authority empowered in this behalf by the Central Government, such property would fetch if sold in the open market.

(3) The fees in respect of property may be levied out of any proceeds of the sale or transfer thereof or out of any income accrued therefrom or out of any other property belonging to the same enemy and vested in the Custodian under this Ordinance.

(4) The fees levied under this section shall be credited to the Central Government.

18. Divesting of enemy property vested in the Custodian. — The Central Government may, by general or special order, direct that any enemy property vested in the Custodian under this Ordinance and remaining with him shall be divested from him and be returned, in such manner as may be prescribed, to the owner thereof or to such other person as may be specified in the direction and thereupon such property shall cease to vest in the Custodian and shall revert in such owner or other person.

19. Protection of action taken under the Ordinance. — No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government or the Custodian or an Inspector of Enemy Property for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Ordinance.

20. Penalty. — (1) If any person makes any payment in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 7, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with both and the payment or dealing shall be void.

(2) If any person contravenes the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 10, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine, or with both.

(3) If any person fails to comply with a requisition made by the Custodian under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 11, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

(4) If any person fails to submit the return under sub-section (2) of section 15, or furnishes such return containing any particular which is false and which he knows to be false or does not believe to be true, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

21. Offences by companies. — (1) Where an offence under this Ordinance has been committed by a company, every person who, at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in the sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Ordinance has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation. — For the purposes of this section, —

(a) «company» means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and

(b) «director» in relation to a firm means a partner in the firm.

22. Effect of laws inconsistent with the Ordinance. — The provisions of this Ordinance shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force.

23. Power to make rules. — (1) The Central Government may make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Ordinance.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for —

(a) the returns that may be called for by the Custodian under sub-section (1) of section 15 and the period within which such returns shall be submitted under sub-section (2) of that section;

(b) the registers in which the returns relating to enemy property shall be recorded under section 16;

(c) the fees for the inspection of registers and for obtaining copies of the relevant portions from the registers under sub-section (2) of section 16;

(d) the manner in which enemy property vested in the Custodian may be returned under section 18;

(e) any other matter which has to be or may be prescribed.

(3) Every rule made by the Central Government under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect as the case may be.

such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

24. Saving.— Every order which was made under the Defence of India Rules, 1962 by the Central Government or by the Custodian of Enemy Property for India, appointed under those rules relating to enemy property and which was in force immediately before the expiration thereof shall, in so far as such order is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, be deemed to continue in force and to have been made under this Ordinance.

ORDER

LC/14/MDW/68

The following Notification from the Govt. of India, Ministry of Labour and Rehabilitation, New Delhi issued under the Mormugao Dock Workers (Regulation of Employment) Scheme, 1965, is hereby republished for information of all concerned.

By order and in the name of the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu.

B. Ram, Secretary, Industries and Labour Department.

Panaji, 18th July, 1968.

Notification

Dated 19th June 1968

S. O. — The following draft of a scheme further to amend the Mormugao Dock Workers (Regulation of Employment) Scheme, 1965, which the Central Government proposes to make in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Dock Workers (Regulation of Employment) Act, 1948 (9 of 1948), is published as required by the said sub-section for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby; and notice is hereby given that the said draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 20th July, 1968.

Any objections or suggestions which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the date so specified will be taken into consideration by the Central Government.

DRAFT SCHEME

1. This Scheme may be called the Mormugao Dock Workers (Regulation of Employment) Amendment Scheme, 1968.

2. In clause 34 of the Mormugao Dock Workers (Regulation of Employment) Scheme, 1965, for sub-clause (2), the following sub-clause shall be substituted, namely:—

«(2) (i) Where a worker is allotted to a registered employer for work in a particular shift but the worker after reporting to the berth, is not engaged by the employer for the reason that the ship has not been berthed, he may be required to work for another employer in another ship berthed at the same place during that shift.

(ii) Where a worker is allotted to a registered employer for work in a particular shift, but the worker, after reporting to the respective call stand of the registered employer, is not engaged by the employer for the reason that there are no barges loaded with ore alongside the ship, he may be required to work for another employer in another ship berthed either at the shore or in the break-water or in the mid-stream during that shift.
